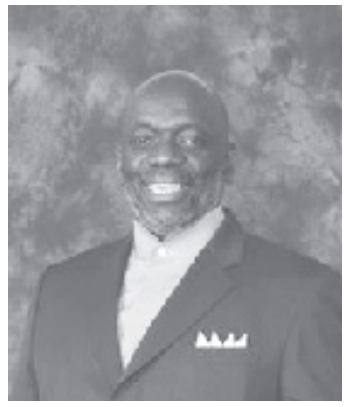
"The LEADER'S EDGE" by dr. michael bell

Sunday School is not as popular as it once was. Across the width and breadth of America, Sunday School attendance is down, it's hard to recruit teachers and those who volunteer don't want to spend time in training and planning. Consequently, some Churches and pastors have concluded "Why bother?"



Some say that the Sunday School doesn't have a prayer in this culture of internet, 24/7 entertainment and shopping, of people whose lives are overloaded and fast-paced. Other churches offer small group Bible studies, stating that these encourage more intimate fellowship than what may occur in a Sunday school class setting.

Call me jurassic if you want but I still think that Sunday School, or whatever name it goes by these days, is still ad rem for at least the following reasons:

1. Sunday School has a place for the entire family. In one trip to church your entire family can participate in the important purposes of Bible study, fellowship, discipleship, ministry, and evangelism. You gain the assurance of knowing every member of your family is involved in weekly, small-group Bible study, which is growing their Bible knowledge and helping them grow spiritually.

2. Sunday School upgrades your Biblical literacy. When you know and understand God's Word for yourself, you are more likely to obey the Lord. The Bible knowledge gained in Sunday School also helps you become more proficient in applying God's Word.

3. Sunday School assists your spiritual growth. Spiritual growth is a choice and is necessary to deepen our relationship with God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit. It's making Jesus the Lord of our lives, submitting to the guiding power and blessings of the Holy Spirit. Growing in our spirituality is the desire to become righteous and more Christ-like in our everyday lives.

4. Sunday School provides a "place to belong." Sunday school is important in the spiritual development of Christians because it provides a forum for learning. This forum is made up of students and teachers. Sunday School encourages spiritual interaction between the students and the teachers, as well as providing a comprehensive way of learning as a group. In a Sunday School class you are known, personally recognized and transparency is more likely to occur. You can share needs and concerns from your life. As you participate in class discussions, you become part of the group.

5. Sunday School provides a structure for teaching God's Word. Preaching isn't enough. A systematic teaching of the Scriptures needs to occur through all age levels. Children, youth, and adults need opportunities for discovery, review, and interaction as they study God's principles. Sunday school meets needs!
6. Sunday School helps you build meaningful relationships. You meet people, learn their names, hear their stories, and meet their families. You share fellowship times with class members. You minister alongside others.

7. Sunday School gives you opportunities to serve and minister. Contacts with sometimes "unchurched prospects" gives you the privilege of sharing your faith. You show the love of Jesus by ministering to class members who have needs.

We'll talk again next month! Blessings

An Easter Egg From God

by Tesh Njokanma

Have you ever been given an Easter egg or have you given out an Easter egg to anyone before? It's a common practice at Easter time for special eggs to be given out in celebration of Easter. The Easter egg tradition has long been forgotten in my family probably because a lot of things that held meaning and significance for us when we were young children seem to have lost their appeal. Or maybe there are some family traditions that without even realizing it, money, time, distance and the pressure of daily responsibilities make you out grow. But I still remember while growing up how I used to get some nicely wrapped colourful Easter eggs. They were big lovely egged shaped chocolates not real eggs. Because of my sweet tooth, I really used to look forward to those Easter eggs.

Last Easter, a member of the church blessed me with a bag of Easter eggs. They were real eggs this time. When I got the bag of eggs, I realized that even though I hadn't been too involved with the giving and receiving of Easter eggs for some years now, the tradition of giving out Easter eggs whether they come in the form of nicely wrapped egg sized chocolates or as real eggs, still holds special meaning for some people.

This Easter, I strongly believe that God is going to be giving out some Easter eggs. And I know for sure that they aren't going to be attractive looking, nicely shaped chocolates nor would they be eggs that you can boil or fry. God is going to do much better than that. He's going to give you something divine, something special, something money can't buy, something that will change the story of your life.

An egg actually has about eight parts. But for you to understand the kind of Easter egg you are about to receive from God, I will mention just three parts of the egg. The egg shell which is the hard, protective covering. The egg white which is the clear liquid contained in the egg. Then we have the yolk. The yolk is the yellow portion of the egg and a major source of vitamins and minerals. Now what relevance does all of this hold to you and I? I will tell you. The first thing you are going to receive from God this season is a special shell of protection. Until you break the egg shell, you can't see the egg white and the egg yolk. Once the shell is broken, you can see and also make use of the egg white and the egg yolk. Have you ever tried eating boiled eggs without removing the shell? It's not nice at all. It is when the shell is removed that you really enjoy the egg whether it is boiled, fried or scrambled eggs. See yourself as the egg white or the egg yolk in an egg that Satan wants to get to and eat. Of course to get to you, the shell has to be broken, the shell of protection has to be removed. God is going to surround you with such a strong shell of protection that no evil eye will be able to see you and no evil hand will be able to touch you. You will not become food for your enemies or mincemeat or should I say mince egg for the devil.

Of all the different things we eat, eggs are the most delicate. They can easily break and as such must be treated with care when carrying them. God is going to treat you with special care and affection this Easter season and all through this year. He will hold you like an egg so that nothing that concerns you will drop to the ground and break. You shall not break down this year. Your body, health, marriage, business and ministry will not break down this year. Your dreams and expectations for the year will not end up like spoilt eggs. God will keep them fresh and alive. He will make them a reality this year.

"Speak Life Thought"

with First Lady & Co-Pastor Yolanda G. Butler

"Quicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: For thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble."(Psalm 143:11)

The word "quicken" in the Hebrew is "chayah," meaning to be restored back to life, revived, or refreshed. Oxford Dictionary defines the word "reset" as "to set again or differently." Often when I work on my laptop, I type so fast and open up multiple programs until the system reaches a point where it overloads and becomes stuck. It literally prevents me from making any progress. There is nothing wrong with the laptop; it has just been overextended beyond its means causing it to shut down. In order to bring it back to life, I have to hit the "reset" button. So it is with us as believers, we can get to the point in our life where we feel stuck. We don't know whether to go to the left, the right, sit down, lie down, run, walk, quit, be quiet, holler, or what. It's not a good feeling or a good place to be—aimlessly stuck!

In this passage, we find David stuck and hiding in a cave from his persecutor, King Saul. David is known as a worshipper, a man after God's own heart. Yet, he had become fainthearted. It did not matter how much anointing was on his life, he was discouraged. He was stuck in a cave and reached a point of discouragement. No doubt there were others in the cave stuck with him, but they had no solution or answer; they were just as stuck as he was. It was in that place that he turned to the very One who could restore him and hit the reset button in his life, and that was Yahweh. From that stuck place provoked out of his soul a plea to the Father, "Quicken me, Oh Lord!" It was a cry to be re-established, not like in the beginning, but differently. It was a cry to be revived into an entirely different place in God.

In your place of shut down, you may find yourself surrounded around a bunch of stuck folks. You may find yourself even by yourself feeling trapped and wedged in. In that place right there do as King Hezekiah did and turn your face toward the cave wall of your life and ask the Father to hit the reset button in your life and give you a fresh start. When life has you functioning in a state of "stuckness," ask God to hit the reset button in your life and bring you back to life. As a child of God, be brave enough to ask the Father to revive you from discouragement, restore you from brokenness, heal you from sickness and/or refresh you from frustration. Yes, you might be stuck, confused and ashamed but let not that stop you from lifting up your hands and opening up your mouth, and making your personal plea before the Father, "LORD! RESET ME!" A stuck place is a prime opportunity for God to get the glory out of your life. Be brought back to life child of God. Be restored to wholeness. Be revived for fulfillment. Be refreshed for His righteousness sake. "LORD! RESET ME!"

Until then dear hearts, even in a place of "stuckness," be determined to ask God to hit the reset button of your life and be restored.

"The Resurrection SOUND"

Hello dear Believers, Seekers and all God's people. We have just entered that blessed time on the Christian calendar when songs, sermons and symbolism reign supreme as we show our gratitude to Jesus for His ultimate sacrifice……on the Cross.

If we subscribe to the concept of the 50 days of Eastertide (the eve of Easter to the Day of Pentecost in Acts 2) we can experience the sacred sounds celebrating Jesus' love for us over and over. For weeks, we can meditate on what it means to say 'Christ is Risen'. The Resurrection season features music within our hymnals, children's tunes, melancholy anthems, Worship songs with multiple inversions and the poignant expressions of traditional and contemporary choirs. What are you singing this Year? What do you hope your Worship Ministry prepares for your congregation's edification? Let me be so bold as to suggest some of my favorite and beloved Easter melodies from a variety of genres and eras.

The Hymns: The Old Rugged Cross, Because He Lives, There is A Fountain, He Is Lord, Lead Me to Calvary, Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone?, Jesus Paid It All, He Will Remember Me, Near the Cross, Christ the Lord is Risen Today, He Lives, Rock of Ages, Were You There, He Arose and The Blood Will Never Lose Its Power!

P&W: Here I Am to Worship, This is Amazing Grace by Phil Wickham, My Redeemer Lives by Nicole Mullen The Hill by Travis Green, The Anthem by FGBCF, The Blood of Jesus by M. Butler and Alive by William Murphy.

Traditional and Contemporary Choir: He Decided to Die, No Greater Love, He Rose by Brent Jones, Don't Cry by Kirk Franklin, He's Alive by DeAndre Patterson, He's Alive by Michael Mindingall, Calvary by Richard Smallwood, The Blood by James Hall, Worth by Anthony Brown, Marvelous by W. Hawkins, These Nails by D. Lawrence, He Lives by Youthful Praise, He Suffered by Malcolm Williams and You Saved Me by Shawn Bigby.

Gospel-styled Anthems: Matthew 28 by Donald Lawrence, They Didn't Know by Kurt Carr, The Resurrection by Richard Smallwood and Hallelujah Chorus by Handel (yes it was actually written for Easter)

Liturgical Dance: Grace to Overcome by William Murphy, It Wasn't Easy by CeCe Winans, All for Me by James Fortune, Oh What Love by Vickie Winans and Glory to the Lamb by Geoffrey Golden

These are just a few of the old, new and classics that we shall, I pray, forever hear during this time of celebrating the resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus.

Gospel Music FYI: The digital book 'Tasha Page Lockhart Uncut' was released last month. Anointed 19 year old Jekalyn Carr has a book, 'You Will Win' , a new movie 'I Never Heard My Father Speak' and new single "You Never Left Me" on the way. JP Kee is featuring psalmist Miranda Curtis on a new single "RELEASE". Anthony Brown's new single "Trust In You" is out and his new clothing line, Mercy Life Apparel is on sale. The Gospel Corner with Proclaimer of the Word...

Rev. J.R. Brumfield

JESUS DID IT!

Luke 23:1-27, 32-46, 24:1-6, 13-35, 49

I. INTRODUCTION

Many of us can relate to the phrase, "the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat." The phrase was coined to capture the human drama of athletic competition. As believers in Christ, we can draw similar comparisons of this dramatic pendulum that occurred during the Passion Week. One might say that while Jesus hung on the cross and uttered the seven last sayings, we find a mix of emotions. On the one hand, the followers of Jesus are terrified and heartbroken because it looked like all hope was lost. The King of Kings was now suffering and dying on an old rugged cross. It appeared that all hope was lost on that cross. The earth had begun to shake and quiver because something unusual was happening. The sun refused to shine because the Son was about to die for the sins of humanity. It was the worst of times for the disciples of Christ because it appeared to be the agony of defeat. On the other hand, the Roman soldiers and Jewish leaders were rejoicing. They had the audacity and indecency to cast lots for Jesus's garments while he was dying on the cross. It appeared that they were experiencing the "thrill of victory."

We have heard that saying, it's not over until it's over. We have seen many sports teams lose in the last seconds of the game. If the devil would have heard the words of John 12:32, he would have never allowed Jesus to be lifted upon an old rugged cross. Per John 12:32, Jesus stated that "if I be lifted, I will draw all men unto me." Do you want to help me lift Jesus? We must never count the Lord out and think that the Christian battlefield is a losing venture. Per Isaiah 53:5, it states; "He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed." We must take these words to heart as healing for a sin sick soul.

As we approach the text, we will find that despite hard trials and troubles, our Lord has made salvation available for humanity. We must believe that Jesus died and was resurrected on Resurrection Sunday. Let's delve into the Word and see the experiences of the women and His disciples regarding the death, burial, and resurrection of our Lord and Savior.

II. He Is Not Here; Luke 23:1-27, 32-46; 24:1-6

From Luke 23, we have the trial and troubles of our Lord Jesus. In this passage, there was a release of a murderer named Barabbas. Pilate elected to wash his hands with Jesus and sentence him to die on Calvary's cross. As Jesus begins to carry His cross, we find that He needed some help from a Cyrenian named Simon. The scripture informs us that there was a large gathering of people that followed Jesus on His way to the cross. Some people cried much for our Lord on His way to the cross. Some people were happy because they thought their troubles would be over. The scripture informs us that Jesus was nailed to the cross between two malefactors.

It was in Luke 23:34 that Jesus uttered the words, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." Afterwards, there was a parting of Christ's garments and a casting of lots. There was at the foot of the cross, some people that chose to mock Christ. One of the soldiers had offered vinegar which we know made the pain linger for a little while. Also, the mother of Jesus was present at the foot of the cross. This was a tragic scene for the mother of Jesus and His disciples to see Jesus suffer on that old rugged cross. Although Christ asked the Father to forgive them yet they didn't get it. Our Lord was mocked on the old rugged cross. Nevertheless, while Christ was dying on the cross, one of the malefactors requested that Jesus would remember him when thou come into thy kingdom. Jesus uttered another word by saying, "Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in paradise." In Luke 23:44, darkness covered all the earth until the ninth hour. The sweetest words that the thief on the right could hear was that he was going to heaven. Our Lord was so compassionate that he stopped dying to save one lost sinner!

In Luke 23:46, we find the last words of our Lord Jesus, "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit." The work of Jesus was now finished. The bible clearly tells us that He gave up the ghost. He died on Friday but we know as believers that Sunday is coming. There was a man named Joseph that requested the body of Christ to be taken and laid in a tomb that had never been used before.

It appeared that the women that followed Joseph to lay Christ to rest had experienced the agony of defeat. But early Sunday morning, these women pondered within themselves who would roll away the stone. As we enter Luke 24:1-6, we find that to their amazement, the stone was rolled away. Can you imagine the perplexity of their spirit? These women were going to anoint Christ body and give him a proper burial but in Luke 24:6, the two angels state the facts. He is not here because he is risen. A reminder was given by the angel to let the women know that Christ has risen as He said he would. As believers, we must learn to take Christ at His Word.

III. He Walks with Us, Luke 24:13-35

Although Christ had risen from the earlier verses, we find that Jesus chooses to walk with two of his disciples on their way to Emmaus. During these two disciples walk, they were disappointed that Jesus had died and they were experiencing the agony of defeat. They felt like all hope was lost and that their Master was now taken away. When we do not have the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives, we should feel like we have lost a great deal. As these two men continue their walk, Jesus draws nigh unto them. However, these two disciples do not ascertain that Jesus is walking with them.

When I think of the footprints in the sand, I am reminded that in times of the most troublesome storms that God is still with us. He will not only walk with us but He will carry us through the storms of life. The bible declares that he will neither leave us or forsake us. As the communication between the two disciples and Jesus continues, a discovery is made regarding the suffering of Jesus. This same Jesus that the world knew to have died on the cross is now walking with them. Now we must observe that the presence of Jesus encouraged their hearts and dispositions. These disciples wanted Jesus to stay with them a little while longer but Jesus was on His way back to heaven. However, these disciples couldn't keep the good news of the gospel to themselves. They went back to the eleven disciples to tell them that Jesus walked and talked with them along the way. These two disciples had a testimony that they shared with the eleven disciples that He is risen from the dead. We serve a risen Savior!

IV. He Offers Help, Luke 24:49

It is stated by our Lord and Savior that the disciples should tarry in Jerusalem until they are endowed with power from on high. It is good to know that although Jesus made his ascension back to heaven, we have the help of the Holy Spirit. On the day of Pentecost, the church was endowed with the presence of the Holy Spirit and he showed up like a rushing mighty wind. Today, as believers we have the encouragement, empowerment, and we are enlightened with the presence of the Holy Spirit. We should always know that God is a very present help in the time of trouble. Despite trouble times and difficult days, we can make it with God on our side. Let's do like the two disciples on the Emmaus road. We must remember to tell others that Jesus died for our sins and if we repent then we can be reconciled back to God. This is the good news of the gospel.

In closing, the biblical account does not end with Jesus dying on the cross but early Sunday morning, Christ arose with the resurrection victory. It was through the suffering of Jesus Christ that God provided healing for our sin, shame, and sorrows. Through the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we have a way of escape from the path of destruction. Christ has baffled Satan's temptations and rescued lost souls out of his hands with the resurrection victory. As Christians, we can experience the thrill of victory in Christ Jesus. Help is available in Christ Jesus. Remember, Jesus did it!

MONEY MATTERS!!

April is Financial Literacy Month: African-Americans and Financial Literacy

(Part 1 of a 3 part series)

April is financial literacy month, which means there will be lots of talk about financial literacy. Therefore, I want to engage with the African-American community regarding financial literacy and wealth.

Financial Illiteracy is the ability to understand how money works: how a person manages it, how a person invests it, and how a person uses it to help others.

The racial wealth gap is reinforced by federal policies that largely operate to increase wealth for those who already possess significant assets. More than half of the $400 billion in annual federal asset-building subsidies, such as to promote homeownership, retirement savings, economic investment and access to college, flow to the wealthiest 5% of taxpaying households. The bottom 60% of taxpayers receive only 4% of these benefits.

The last time the American Government really committed to solving problems of racial equity was the 1960s and so many aspects of that equity haven't budged in the time since, and very little focus has been on addressing things like the family income gap between black and white families and the racial wealth gap. When there is no focusing on the problems that need to be solved, … politicians pass through legislation that sounds fair on its face but in effect creates bigger rewards for people who already have wealth more than people who do not have wealth.

The median white household has $111,145 in wealth holdings, compared to $7,113 for the median black household and $8,348 for the median Latino household, according to a recent study called The Racial Wealth Gap: Why Policy Matters.

The report outlines how homeownership, education and the labor market have all contributed to the wealth, with blacks and Hispanics being less able to buy homes, build wealth via homeownership, buy homes in good school districts, invest businesses, access higher education and so on.

In Part Two I will address Financial Illiteracy: The cause of financial Self-destruction in the African-American community.
