JUBILEE THEATRE PRESENTS DOROTHY MARCIC'S "SISTAS THE MUSICAL"

"Sistas The Musical produced by 3-time Tony winner Hinton Battle"

Fort Worth, TX (July 7, 2019) – Jubilee Theatre is ecstatic to present the North Texas premiere of Dorothy Marcic's, Sistas The Musical, on stage July 26 – August 25, 2019.

After a matriarch's death, the women in the family clean Grandma's attic and find love and old memories packed away, and in the process, hit tunes that trace the history of black women, from the trials of the 1930s through the Girl Groups of the 60s to the empowerment of the 90s. Songs include "Oh, Happy Day," "Mama Said," "I Will Survive," "Tyrone," "I am Not My Hair" and "A Woman's Worth."

Sistas The Musical is directed by Jubilee's newest artistic director, D. Wambui Richardson who shares patrons "will be able to enjoy 7 decades of music – as Sistas is one of the longest running musicals!" The musical stars five actors, Octavia Thomas (Dr. Simone), Kimberly Oliver (Robert), Kaylee Killingsworth (Heather), L'Paige Bedford (Gloria) and Sydney Hewitt (Tameka).

The remaining production team includes musical direction by Clark Joseph, choreography by JuNene K, set design by George Miller, costume design by Andre Terry, scenic design by Jennye James, sound design by Adam Bailey, technical direction by Allen Dean, stage management by Cherie Williams and assistant stage management by Aaron Butler.

Sistas The Musical runs July 26 – Aug. 25 at Jubilee Theatre, 506 Main Street, Fort Worth, TX 76102. Evening performances are at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday and 8:00 p.m. on Friday and Saturday. Matinee performances are at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Press night is Thursday, August 1 at 7:30 p.m.

"The LEADER'S EDGE" by drmichaelbell

Most of us have heard the saying inspired by the Pareto's Principle (also known as the Law of Disproportionate Distribution), "80% of the work is done by 20% of the people." It always seems like there are just a corporal's guard that carry most of the load in the Church. But that can greatly hinder leadership development. So why does this happen?

How do we get them on board?

Let's say you're a Senior Pastor at a program-size Church (150 to 350 active members) and you need someone to oversee the youth and children's ministry. Most people look for a person with a heart for kids AND some leadership skills. You also want to start a men's ministry, so you look for a man that has a heart for men's ministry and leadership skills. And then the small groups coordinator steps down, and you need to fill her spot with someone who has a heart for discipleship and, of course, leadership skills. You eventually find a few people who want to do these assignments, but you question whether or not they have the necessary leadership skills. What is a senior leader to do? Because you have used all the leaders up in other ministries, you have to either give the job to someone who is already leading (80/20) or settle for someone who doesn't completely fit.

Throughout the Holy Writ God used men and women to lead others to accomplish great things - all to God's glory. And, I'm equally convinced, just as there aren't enough people working who should be working...there aren't enough leaders who should be leading. We all want our Church members to get plugged-in, but this isn't going to happen for everyone automatically. You need to have clear pathways for people to get involved. What is your Church's leadership recruitment strategy?

All the gimmicks and leadership recruiting mixers in the world can't do anything if your members never say to themselves, "I want to be a part of that." Your job is to make it clear that more effective leaders are needed.

1. Pray for laborers. Jesus gave us clear guidelines for securing workers. He said, in Luke 10:2, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." Pray for laborers who have the capacity to lead.

2. Show them the BIG PICTURE! You need to excite people with the Church's vision. Get them to see the bigger picture. One of the mantras we shout at my Church is "DREAM BIGGER!" Of course, you have to accept that not everyone wants to dream big. You're going to have some members who prefer to show up on the first and third Sundays and go home without any other involvement or commitments. You can't fall into the trap of catering to these people. You have to dream big and share your vision in spite of those who don't want to be involved. Just remember that dreams are viral.

3. Let them know they can make a difference. So they get the bigger picture, now show them they can have a part in it. Everybody wants to make a difference, to be influential. Show people their contribution counts.

These are just three suggestions to improve and expand your Church leadership circle.

"Speak Life Thought"

with First Lady & Co-Pastor Yolanda G. Butler

A Treasured Life

"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure that a man discovered hidden in a field. In his excitement, he hid it again and sold everything he owned to get enough money to buy the field." Matthew 13:44

Treasure means a place in which good and precious things of value are collected and kept. God acknowledged man as His treasure even though he had failed. Because of love, God gave His best that He might purchase humanity back with the Blood of the Lamb. "In the house of the righteous is much treasure..." (Prov. 15:6) Hidden within you is a priceless treasure, Jesus Christ, the fullness of the Godhead. This treasure is not designed to be hidden but radiate.

"But we have this [heavenly] treasure in earthen vessels that the excellency of the power may be of God and not of us." (2 Cor. 4:7) An earthen vessel is a brittle, earthenware jar representing humanity's weakness. The abiding heavenly treasure within our natural vessel greatly enriches and sustains our lives enabling the excellency of God's power to help us live life and all that it brings. (See 2 Cor. 4:8-9).

God's heavenly treasure encompasses so much including salvation, knowledge, and wisdom. Despite what is happening in our world, amid uncertain times God will sustain His children (investment) in present times. He even declared that "the fear of the Lord is your treasure," meaning obedience to His will, even under pressure, will produce power and glory out of your treasured life. (See Is. 33:6)

Housed within our natural vessel is the treasure of faith, total reliance on God, a priceless precious commodity. The fruit of the Spirit of love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance is an ever-abiding treasure in our earthen vessel.

The beauty of God's treasures indwelling in our earthen treasure is that they are never meant to be lifeless or become unnoticeable. On the contrary, these treasures are meant to sparkle and shine for all to see the glory of God's masterpiece at work. "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." (Matt. 5:16)

A life that was born in adversity, shaped in iniquity, and labeled as filthy rags has been washed and purified by the redeeming Blood of the Lamb, and classified as God's treasure housed with priceless treasures. Dear hearts, be determined to sparkle and shine for you are a treasured life.

A Royally New Beginning

by Fred Willis

August: marked by majestic dignity or grandeur. i.e. "August lineage" Many believers struggle with an identity crisis. Caught between what they were, what they are and what they will be, many go to church and have yet to fully come into the Kingdom. What does this mean? For starters, as believers we can't identify more as carnally unacceptable than we do as Kingdom Citizens. Paupers in the earth, yet princes and princesses in the palatial presence of Almighty God.

We have been crucified and identified with Christ, our identity is in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17). Paul tells us that we have been seated in Heavenly places (Eph. 1). Access beyond those pearly palace gates has been granted to every believer. As believers, we have no business existing beneath the promotion and privilege that comes with being a Kingdom Citizen.

Still not a 'believer'? The bible clearly identifies us as joint-heirs with Christ (Rom. 8:17) and Christ has said that He'd received all that His Father has (John 3:35). As joint heirs, know what that means? Yep, that's right. Let's have a look at this in the secular arena:

Kate Middleton married Prince William, Duke of Cambridge and it became instant news. Mainly because the Prince got married, but also because royalty married a 'commoner'. Royalty was bestowed upon her the moment their wedding vows were performed.

The bride of Christ is analogous to the former Miss Middleton. Courted by royalty desiring ever so earnestly to marry. Christ is the 'bridegroom' and the body of believers is his 'bride'. As believers, we too have the honor of royalty being bestowed upon us by Christ Himself. I liken this to 1 Peter 2:9.

Royalty was bestowed instantly once the former Miss Kate Middleton married Prince William, Duke of Cambridge. The same goes for believers, as Paul stated in 2 Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (KJV)

Accepting Christ is not only about Salvation, it's about accepting who and what Christ is. In Christ, our past is erased. God wants to turn our focus from what we once were to what He has for us. Isaiah 64:4 is repeated in 1 Corinthians 2:9

August is the 8th month of the year. The number 8 symbolizes a new beginning. As you approach this month, walk not only in the new beginning found in Christ, but in the royal lineage of which you are now apart! This month marks the beginning of a new journey for us.

Join me as I release my new book to share with men everywhere about our new beginning, in Christ at: www.whoisfredwillis.com

GOSPEL MUSIC ON THE MOVE

Hello to the almost-end-of-Summer, but the start of great gospel events. I am amazed at how much new music is being released and how much the gospel community seems to be doing at this time. It's absolutely a good thing and we pray it sets the atmosphere for more positivity in our country or at least as Jonathan McReynold's song suggests we "Make Room" for time with the Lord. Let me take you inside of the August events and activities occurring within gospel music as the summer closes.

The two oldest and most established gospel music organizations are holding their annual conventions this month, almost back to back. Singers and Musicians are headed to the District of Columbia for the 52nd Gospel Music Workshop of America convention. The dates are July 27-August 3, 2019 for a full week of singing and praising by the brightest and most gifted in gospel music. We know their presence will activate and deposit a stronger atmosphere for the move of God up and down Pennsylvania Avenue. Moving on.....to the 86th National Convention of Gospel Choirs and Choruses, Inc. gathering in the Motor City of Detroit, Michigan. That state is the home of some of gospel's greatest stalwarts in music and they will be present. Of major note will be the phenomenal Master Class by maestro Donald Lawrence and a full concert by the legendary Clark Sisters. This convention will meet from August 3 - August 9, 2019. For more info on both conventions check out their websites: ncgcinc.org and gmnational.net.

New music from veteran and rising gospel artists is coming forth with impressive sales and spins on radio. I first heard Gene Moore at the Kennedy Center for Performing Arts 3 years ago at the National Gospel Music Heritage Celebration. His song "Recover" seemed fitting to encourage his hometown neighbors after the Harvey Hurricane hit Houston. But I knew that voice would continue to bring him notoriety even after Houston neighborhoods were reconstructed. His new project "Tunnel Vision" drops this month as he goes on tour with label mate and homeboy Brian Courtney Wilson. Last September in OKC, I heard Kurt Carr introduce a new song that he was extremely excited about. He told how God was confirming that this song would cross over to have commercial, humanitarian, charitable impact in and outside of the church. "Help Somebody Else" is already under review by the Coca Cola Bottling Company for a potential national outreach campaign. That project is on its way and I'm praying with Kurt that it will move the world to love. Anthony J. Brown is touring his 'live' recorded project and has added choreography to his first release "Blessings on Blessings". The B.O.B. bounce will probably be coming to a festival near you. Artists like Byron Cage and Ben Tankard who have remained visible but unrecorded are dropping projects this month. I hear Yolanda Adams is finally back in the studio. JJ Hairston's new album "Miracle Worker", same name as the first single, just dropped and coincides with his and wife Trina's new book A Miracle Marriage.

These are all very exciting and fresh moves by our beloved gospel artists and we are inspired by their actions. Of great note for us locally is the upcoming move of Bishop Marvin Sapp to become Senior Pastor at the prestigious Golden Vessel Cathedral here in Fort Worth. He was recently in town house hunting!! With these new moves by gospel artists in song, dance, writing, touring and pastoring we can only say, thank You Jesus. They are modeling the foundations of Psalm 25:10 and Proverbs 3:6 as the Lord guides.

Did You Tell Them About Jesus? Luke 8:26-39

I. INTRODUCTION

It has been stated that no one knows your story like you know your story. Where were you when the Lord saved you? The thief on the right side of the cross did not have much time between death and eternity. However, the Lord Jesus stopped dying to tell the man that this day, thou shall be with me in paradise. The Lord has rescued some people from turmoil and trouble. Some people were in the gutters of society and they were plagued with a sickness of the human spirit. These people would sell out their brothers and sisters for a penny in the streets. These people would tell someone that they loved them and at the same time they would stab their love ones in the back. I suggest to you when the Lord has brought you from a mighty long way, you can't help but tell somebody about Jesus. The Lord has rescued some people from the dungeon of the streets and raised them up to be preachers of His Word.

Where were you when the Lord saved you? Rufus H. McDaniel gives insight into the power of Jesus in his life. In a song he tells us, "What a wonderful change in my life has been wrought since Jesus came into my heart! I have light in my soul for which long I had sought." The soul of man seeks to know his Creator but the ruler of darkness wants to keep us in the realm of darkness. One should note that Rufus McDaniel's song of praise includes the fact that light is something that is sought after diligently. Rufus felt that the expression of song service was his way of telling others of a loving Savior Jesus Christ that saved his soul from a burning hell. One might say that Rufus felt so much gratitude to the Lord that he went on to write several spiritual songs of comfort.

In Psalm 71:15-18, we see that David wants the reader to know that when we are confronted with discouragement, we can still rejoice. It has been stated that in this passage, David was confronted with something in his own house. It was Absalom that wanted to take his father's place as king. In verse 15, we see the words, "My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers." "I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of thy righteousness." When we have said all that we can to the glory of God, then there is still more to be said. God is still good when trouble comes into our lives and we have something to shout about! We have a testimony to share with a lost world. David had a praise despite his personal situation. We can still tell someone about the goodness of the Lord!

As we approach the text, we will find that the Lord has a way of saving sinners that are in the grips of satanic power. Let's delve into the Word and see what the Lord has to say to the body of Christ.

II. UNFRIENDLY SPIRITS, 8:26-27

As we look at the Book of Luke, we find that Luke was concerned about the downtrodden, defeated, and discouraged of society. This story takes place on the other side of a stormy sea. In the preceding verses, Jesus spoke to the winds and the waves in the disciples lives and there was a great calm. When one trouble is over, another trouble may be on the horizon. No soon as Jesus and his disciples went to the other side, they met a demon possessed man in the region of Gerasene.

When we look at these verses, we find that the demon-possessed man went to meet Jesus. The Word tells us that for a long time, this man had not worn clothes or lived in a house. Clothing and a place of habitation are two of the essentials of a normal healthy life. What happens when a person does not have these necessities? Since this man was demon-possessed, he was forced to make his residence among the dead. It is important to note that this man felt comfortable in the graveyard. When this demon-possessed man approached Jesus, he asked Jesus what do you want with me? In other words, I was doing alright focusing on dead stuff and dead things, but you are interrupting my way of life. What do you want with me Jesus? Now, one must acknowledge that this was not a very friendly welcoming committee. There are times when we meet with unfriendly welcoming committees. How would you feel if you went to church where the people were rude? As members of the body of Christ, we must be careful how we entertain strangers in our midst.

This man was not by himself in the graveyard. He had some company because the word tells us that there were many demons inside of this man. When a person is demon-possessed they do not want any help. What do you want with me Jesus? When Satan has a grip on one's life, then one will have an unfriendly disposition. A person will have an unfriendly personality because they are void of the light of the gospel. No one can show godly love unless the Holy Spirit resides with them. In 1 Cor. 6:19, we are reminded that God is holy, and He will not dwell in an unholy place. The demon-possessed man was so wretched that he could not entertain any thoughts of light or God's goodness. However, we know that when one meets Jesus, things will be different. When I looked at my hands, my hands looked different. When I looked at my feet, my feet looked different. When the woman at the well met Jesus, her life was changed. When lost sinners meet a holy God, then their lives will be changed!

III. UNGOVERNABLE, 8:28-29

In these verses, we ascertain that the demon-possessed man was bound with chains and fetters so he might not do anyone or himself harm. When one is placed in custody then there is an offence that has been committed or one is capable of being committed. In this case, some restraints were placed on the demon-possessed man to keep him from hurting other people or himself. Have you ever issued a restraining order on someone? Or do you know someone that has received a restraining order? This demon-possessed man received a restraining order, but it did not restrain him from doing wrong. The bible gives evidence that even the chains and fetters could not hold this man. This man was ungovernable. When sin takes a grip on someone's life, then the only restraint is the presence of the Holy Spirit. If the Lord does not convict your conscience of sin, then you are incapable of stopping yourself from falling into sin and destruction. This demon-possessed man was on his way to a burning hell.

If no one could tame this man then we must ascertain that this man's case was deplorable, despicable, and he was on his way to utter destruction. Oh how blessed it is when the light of the gospel shines on one's face. When the prisoner is released from a state of bondage, there is great joy. Before we accept Jesus as our personal Savior, we are in a state of bondage. We are walking in darkness prior to the entrance of the marvelous light. This man could not help himself, but help was available. Jesus came to Gennesaret to make a difference in this man's life.

IV. UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT, 8:30-39

In verse 30, we ascertain that Jesus posed a question to the demon-possessed man. "What is your name?" Legion, he replied because many demons had gone into him. The bible declares that these demons begged Jesus not to send them to hell at this moment. The demons begged Jesus to send them into the pigs that were feeding on the hillside. The demons knew that when Jesus showed up, he would later show out on behalf of this poor soul. In verse 34, we learn that the demons went into the herd of pigs and they ran down a steep bank into the lake and drowned. Can you imagine what could have happened to this man if Jesus had not showed up and showed out?

In verse 39, we ascertain that the man cured from the demons wanted to go with Jesus. Nevertheless, Jesus instructed the man to return home and tell others about his testimony. The bible tells us that the man went away with a testimony about the wonder working power of Jesus. If the Lord's people would tell about the power of Jesus in our communities, our cities and our country, then our land would be under new management! We can move from serving the devil to serving the Lord! Are you under new management?

Yours in Christ,

The Fort Worth/Tarrant County branch of the NAACP is congratulating four local ACT-SO Olympians

by Fred Willis

The Fort Worth/Tarrant County branch of the NAACP is congratulating four local ACT-SO (Afro-Academic Cultural Technological Scientific Olympics) Olympians on their triumph at the national competition in Detroit, Michigan. The branch took eleven contestants to compete in twelve categories and brought home bronze medals in the Music Composition categories and Architecture and silver medals in the playwriting and photography categories.

Following the local competition earlier this year, the young people work tremendously hard to prepare for the competition which brought young people together from all over the country. Competition each year is stiff as many of the ACT-SO Olympians are well on their way to a future career in their category of competition. At the Fort Worth/Tarrant County branch, each contestant is heralded as a winner not only because of their medal around their neck, but the mettle with which they face the daunting task of fierce national competition.

This year's group of competitors grew with each meeting and were forced to look deep within themselves to draw out the inspiration that would ultimately lead them to mount the winner's platform in Detroit. This year, the branch bids farewell and Godspeed to incoming college freshmen and multi-year national Olympians Keith Galloway, Jr (Music Performance-Contemporary/Music Composition), and Kennedy Searl (Oratory). Mr. Galloway is the back to back national bronze medalist in the Music Composition Category and will attend the University of Texas. Miss Searle will be attending Clark Atlanta University and new to ACT-SO, Sarah Jacques (Poetry-Written) will attend the University of Texas-Arlington.

Rounding out the awesome foursome of national winners for the branch are: Immanuel Brinson, a bronze medalist in Architecture, Selah Hunter, silver medalist in the Playwriting and Malcolm Herod, silver medalist in Photography. Help the Fort Worth/Tarrant County branch congratulate these winners and all the other national contestants. With only two of its national competitors leaving for college, the branch is looking forward to even greater results next year! For more information about this year's winners and next year's competition, please visit the ACT-SO page on Facebook.

Gospel Recording Artist Micah Lee/Micah Lee Music and Round the Clock Entertainment signs Distribution Deal with DarkChild Gospel for new single "Don't Break" Produced by Fred "Uncle Freddie" Jerkins

The sound of music tastes different when life intervenes with faith. After surviving a near-fatal accident in the midst of a burgeoning singing career, for rising gospel star Micah Lee, the music tastes so much sweeter!

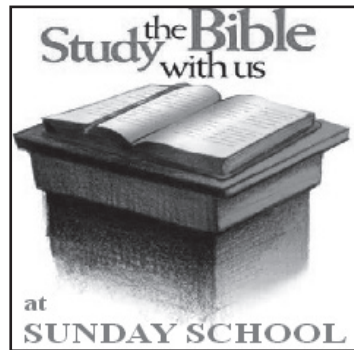

Lee - the soul stirring tenor who dropped three consecutive Top 20 Billboard hits ("Heaven," "Forever") Featuring Da T.R.U.T.H., as well this past Christmas (2018) chart-topping Christmas single "Tis The Season"), has captivated audiences with an eclectic blend of jazz, neo soul, R&B and of course, gospel. Now, the independent sensation has teamed up with Fred "Uncle Freddie" Jerkins CEO of Darkchild Gospel and hit songwriter Alvin Garrett. Whereas in this effort, Jerkins a Grammy Award winning producer and writer produced & co-wrote along with award winning songwriter Alvin Garrett "Micah's" new single. DarkChild Gospel will distribute Lee's new single which will be available on Friday May 10th (Mother's Day Weekend) and Jerkins' newly formed company "We Break Records" will function to service all radio promotion needs for the new single for Micah Lee. With 21 Grammy Award nominations and five Grammy wins, Jerkins is a hitmaker for music industry legends such as Beyonce, Brandy, Mary J. Blige, Donnie McClurkin, Yolanda Adams and so many more. Micah Lee & Uncle Freddie Jerkins as well as Alvin Garrett feel strongly that their collective efforts and talents makes for an explosive blend of faith an energetic groove that will make this song dynamic and very impactful "I am excited to produce this new single for Micah Lee," says Jerkins. "He's a phenomenal talent and extraordinary hard worker. I feel confident that consumers and radio stations alike will be pleased with this song."

Destiny wouldn't have it any other way. "As a young boy, I dreamed of using my God-given talent to encourage, inspire and make people happy as well as bring people together from all walks of life," Lee says. While still in college, Micah's dream was nearly silenced; however, as his SUV hydroplaned, crashed into a wall, and slid into a canal where it remained submerged in water until he was rescued. Doctors first said both his injured legs would have to be amputated. Then, declared the singer's legs could be saved - but he would never walk again. Oh, but "they" didn't know! Micah is not only a prolific songwriter, but consistent faith walker; after a year in a wheelchair, the gentle giant started walking again...and walked straight into his anointing. "At that moment, I knew my healing came from nobody but God! Life is short, and I knew if I was going to take the leap of faith into the music business, it was time." Lee says. And it is so. Lee went on to garner success as an independent artist. Micah Lee's determination, integrity, and relentless work ethic spoke as loudly as the astounding range he belts out, whether on stage or in the studio. And when the Round The Clock Entertainment, CEO Carlton McConnell struck "favor" with Fred "Uncle Freddie" Jerkins, Micah knew it was time.

Time to set the table with this feast of gospel and mainstream music as they all join forces with Micah Lee. Time for a new recipe of faith and inspiration to be served across the cross and through the nations. Time for this voice to rise and faith to collide. It's time for the next wave of praise from Micah Lee. Oh, taste and see!
