Common Ground

Katherine Kindred

It's important that we start working together to heal America. I am amazed that fighting and hating has become acceptable in 2020. But there is more to this than we can see through natural eyes.

Why is it so difficult for us to love each other? We need a revival. But before we can move forward we must remember where we came from.

Have we forgotten God created Adam and Eve, who populated the earth? Doesn't that make us brothers and sisters? If you think not....who's air are you breathing. If you don't believe me, read your Bible, which has Basic Instructions before leaving earth.

It saddens me that we have become our children's worst nightmare. Because of us, they have witnessed conflict, disrespect, hatred and disregard for others. It's hard to believe all the things we have done to each other. We all know right from wrong. So calm down people and stop the hostility.

It is vitally important that we adults show our children how to respond to hate in this confused world. We should be the example they imitate. Jesus said to forgive those who trespass against us. He said to love your neighbor. So who should forgive first? All of us.

"All of you be of one mind having compassion for one another; love as brothers, be tender hearted, be courteous; not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, seek peace and pursue it." 1 Peter 3:8.

Lord make me an instrument of your peace; where there is injury, pardon. Where there is Despair, Hope. Grant that I may not seek to be consoled as to console; to be loved as to love.

If you are sick and tired of it all, will you join us? Choose to be kind and courteous to those who cross your path. Pray and promote healing for our country.

The answer to hate is "Love."

Let's come together on Common Ground for the Common Good of everyone.

Will you help? Join us and Let Peace begin!

"The LEADER'S EDGE" by drmichaelbell

At his inaugural address way back on Saturday, March 4, 1933, Number 32, American President Franklin Delano Roosevelt spoke to a nation jolted by the Great Depression. Roosevelt took the opportunity to turn the unfortunate times that shook the nation into a more noble response. He said in part, "So, first of all, let me assert my firm belief that the only thing we have to fear is fear itself...nameless, unreasoning, unjustified terror which paralyzes needed efforts to convert retreat into advance."

Roosevelt saw the opportunity to take vexatious circumstances and pivot toward the future. This perspective is helpful for the contemporary Church as well.

You and I haven't lived through a time like this in our lives. Period. And, we can all agree we aren't going to miss terms like "self-quarantine," "social distancing" and "shelter in place" once this finally passes.

Right now, all eyes are on the promising efforts of the Pfizer/BioNTech collaboration, Moderna and AstraZeneca, as they and others race toward a COVID-19 vaccine. But as we inch slowly forward, we dare not miss this opportunity to turn "retreat into advance."

Admittedly, the severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2), the virus that causes Covid-19, has stretched every Church to find new ways to fulfill its mission as the Body of Christ. Of course, we know that the Church never was the building. It is and always has been the Laos tou Theou, the people of God, who make up the Church. As Churches were forced to leave their buildings to help stymie the spread of Covid-19, congregations are learning anew what it means to be the Church.

In the short-term, most Churches have pivoted and learned how to use digital technology to continue to spread the gospel and help people find stability in the midst of this health tsunami. Week by week, Churches have become more adroit at worshipping online and conducting small groups and other ministries via social media and video platforms. Now, the urgency of trying to figure out all the ways to connect, minister to and shepherdize our congregations virtually is fastly being supplanted by the daunting challenges of transitioning our congregations back into our facilities.

Faced with a lengthy list of details - how to manage traffic flow to keep people socially distanced, where to find hand sanitizer, how to receive the offering and safely share communion without spreading Covid - Churches are embroiled in determining short-term solutions to reopen their doors in ways that are safe, sanitary, and socially distanced. Reopening your church will require strong leadership.

On that note, allow me to reiterate the unyielding truth that a Church is only as healthy as its leaders. With a potential vaccine on the horizon, Church leader, you have a unique window of opportunity to reflect on who you are as a leader and what changes you may want to make as your Church prepares to relaunch in our post-Covid-19 reality. Churches need to lift their eyes, look out at the horizon and start asking and addressing questions like:

- What have we learned about our church in this crisis that can help us prepare for a new season of ministry?
- Has this crisis revealed a new focus for our Church in terms of mission and vision?
- Have we identified new ministry priorities coming out of Covid-19, and do we have the right leadership capacity to move into that new focus?
- Is our Church leadership team suitable for our next season of ministry?

"A Show-Off Life"

"Then Jesus spoke again unto them saying, I am the Light of the World: he that follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the Light of Life." John 8:12 NKJV

The year 2020 will no doubt go down into history as a year in which the world literally turned upside down. Every nation has been impacted by an unknown phenomenon none as the Coronavirus. Millions were infected and tens of thousands died. This deadly virus along with the sin, darkness, wickedness, and devastation gives the allusion that satan's evilness is outshining God's Kingdom. Oh, how this is far from the truth. The Bible declares in 1 John 1:5 that Light shines in darkness and darkness cannot overpower it. Jesus openly declared to be the Light of the World and invited all of mankind to come and receive what He has to offer. If I can encourage you in any way as we prepare to close one year and enter another, allow the Light of the Father's Son to show off in your life.

A "show-off" is a person who boastfully displays their abilities or accomplishments. Jesus was the prime "show-off" when he made the declaration, "I Am the Light of the World." He was not being conceited or haughty but rather showing off what was in the beginning—Light. Light is extremely delicate, pure, brilliant quality of truth and knowledge, exposed openly and publicly. It is joy, blessing and life in contrast to sorrow, adversity, and death. It is God's presence and favor which gives life to Ps 27:1, "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life." It is the holiness and glory of Yahweh, His splendor and abundance. This is what Jesus is offering to all who answer his plea to "follow Me." He is telling us to believe in Him and that He holds everything we need. He can make a difference in our lives when we allow His Light to shine in and through us.

A born-again believer is a reflection of the True Light. 1 Thess. 5:5, "Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness." Without the Light darkness is your best friend, sin is your lifestyle, and life is hard, lacking direction, never happy, miserable, empty, and miserable. Light was never meant to be hidden but exposed. Hidden light is useless. You are a light bearer and meant to be a show-off. It is the indwelling power of the Holy Ghost that will testify of your character and also tell darkness, "you can't abide here."

This has been a season of weariness, woundedness, worminess, woe-outedness, weeping, and wavering. But the Father's Light will Show Off in the weary to give you strength, the wounded to give you healing, the worn to give you peace, the woe-out to give you rest, the weeping to give you joy, and the wavered to give you sure promises. Mat. 5:16 "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." The Light is the power of God giving you power to tread upon the enemy. The Light is the Word of God, a lamp unto your feet and light to your path. The Light is Prayer that can be made no matter the circumstance. The Light is Worship that is rendered in spirit and in truth. And, the Light is Praise, that yet praise that pushes you to keep pressing no matter what.

Jesus is the Light of the World and as born-again believers He commissioned us to let His Light show off in and through us that others may be drawn and won to His Kingdom. My dear hearts, be encouraged, be determined to let your light shine and be a Show-Off for Jesus in 2021. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from all of us at First Lady Butler Ministries.

NEW MOUNT ROSE HONORED BY STATE AND FEDERAL OFFICIALS FOR THEIR FAITH ON THE FRONTLINES DURING THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

FORT WORTH, TEXAS - The New Mount Rose Missionary Baptist Church of Fort Worth, Texas was recently recognized for their exemplary leadership during the pandemic.

As a member of the Faith and Community Leaders United (FCLU) and in partnership with the 911 Ministry Redemption Bowl, New Mount Rose has helped lead the efforts to provide almost a million dollars of resources and services to the inner-city communities across Texas. New Mount Rose has provided fresh food, needed supplies, cloth safety masks, and hand sanitizer donated by FEMA and the Partnership in Washington, D.C.

"Thank you for exemplary leadership as co-host of the Faith on the Frontlines of the African-American Community Black Pandemic Virtual Forum hosted by U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Region 6 Office of Regional Director and New Mount Rose Church, Fort Worth. The forum highlighted federal, state and local resources available to assist in the response and recovery of African Americans including those in isolated, rural and vulnerable communities through the COVID-19 pandemic and simultaneous epidemics," says, Acting Regional Director Julia Lothrop, HHS, Region 6, which includes Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Texas.

Whether it is showcasing our all pro volunteers at our food day giveaways, or coordinating our mass distribution of cloth masks and hand sanitizer, or promoting our spiritual redemption at the racetrack at the Texas Motor Speedway on October 25, 2020, New Mount Rose generous gifts continue to help fill our neighbors bowls will blessings for their souls.

"The Texas Department of Family and Services thank you for your donation to our families and staff during the COVID-19. In recognition of your service, we express our deepest gratitude for your tireless work improving the lives of vulnerable Texans. Thank you for your generosity and compassion,"

Commissioner Jaime Masters, TD-FPS in Austin, Texas.

New Mount Rose has developed partnerships include FEMA, Redemption Bowl, Huong Dao Temple, Faith and Community Leaders United (FCLU), Ministers Against Crime, Ministers Justice Coalition, the HUB, HHS, Region 6, TDFPS Faith and Community Engagement, 911 Ministries, Designed 4 Greatness, Texas Divas, LULAC #4743, The JEOC & City of Fort Worth, Tarrant County VOAD, Tarrant Churches Together.

We salute the efforts of the members of the New Mount Rose Missionary Baptist Church.

THE LOOK AND TRUTH OF HOPE!

This ITM article will be direct and to the point.....We Must remain full of HOPE!

In a year that could be labeled undefinable, unforgettable and full of surprises, we still operate with a Spirit of Hope. Without verbalizing that fact, we get up each morning God grants and move towards the day's plans with a goal of accomplishing those plans. We haven't stopped being disciplined, seeking and giving encouragement, perceiving new ideas or working on current ones. I'm being very general in these references, but I want to point out the greatest spiritual characteristic that most of us are operating in..... and that is HOPE. To me, it explains why we keep going, participating, trying, crying, expecting communicating, planning, smiling, praying, fasting, reading, praising, writing, thinking and just plain Doing. We STILL have HOPE. With that belief and posture, we keep getting up and moving towards whatever is in front of us. It is a statement of Faith all by itself.

I'm praying you will continue to remember that fact as this year comes to an end and you're tempted to look back at all of the things that didn't happen or you couldn't do. Please, please remember that you CONTINUED to do SOMETHING and that your goal was to do it to the best of your ability. You continued DOING and that has spoken volumes to those around you and in your life. You kept DOING. Romans 15:13 says, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope." That's an action with an expected end.

Before I close, I will include some gospel music news that has encouraged a few artists to admit their renewed faith and hope. Some even disclosed that this year had caused them to deal with depression, to question their musical talent and to even doubt the quality of peer relationships. And then they were nominated for a 2020 Grammy Award. The 63rd Annual Grammy nominees for Best Gospel Album are:

Anthony Brown and Group TheraPy – 2ECOND WIND: READY

Ricky Dillard & Nu G featuring Tiff Joy - CHOIRMASTER

Myron Butler – MY TRIBUTE

PJ Morton – GOSPEL ACCORDING TO PJ

Kierra Sheard – KIERRA

We thank God that the nomination lifted their spirit and confirmed their purpose. Let's pray for each other as we remember the Hope within the words of Philippians 3:14, "I Press on towards the Mark for the prize of the High Calling of God which is in Christ Jesus."

May Peace Be Your Journey

Let's Just Praise the Lord

Psalms 100:1-5

1. Introduction

I want to admonish you today that we should praise the Lord. We have done everything else. Some people have enjoyed turkey and dressing with a little bit of cranberry sauce. Some people have enjoyed sweet potato pie and others have enjoyed pumpkin pie. Some people have enjoyed collard greens and black-eye peas with corn on the cobb. Some people have felt God's presence throughout the years while others are learning to lean and depend on the Lord. As I walk along this Christian journey, I realize something about walking with the Lord. The more you walk with Him, the more you will want to praise Him. You will find yourselves lifting a praise in a season of dark dispositions and disappointments in life. You will find yourselves lifting a praise in the middle of a public disturbance. We can still praise the Lord in the pandemic because we know that God is still in control. I have discovered that we cannot walk with God without walking in praise to Him. When we walk and talk with God, we are giving Him the praises and as we walk with God, we will talk with God. The bible informs us that two cannot walk together unless they agree. Praise and Prayer go hand in hand. Praise changes the way I pray. Praise will change the way that we see God. When your troubles and trials in life appear big, (sometimes the load gets a little heavy, but He is a heavy load-sharer and a burden bearer) we should know that our God is bigger than any problem that we may encounter. Praise ushers us into God's presence. Once we are in God's presence then we can truly have a talk with Jesus.

When I start to praise, I close the door of despair and I open the door of deliverance. Is there anybody in the house that is ready to get their deliverance right now. I close the door to the world and I open the door to the Lord.

Praise dissipates worry and dilutes concern and fear. Praise tarnishes sadness and magnifies God's goodness. Praise is one of the languages of faith. Praise capitalizes on Who and What truly matters. It focuses on the Lord and we can praise our way out.

The Psalm 100 tells us how to enter the presence of God. This psalm is a literary masterpiece. It has been said that the Bible is shallow enough that the immature can play without drowning, but it is deep enough that the most mature can never touch the bottom. Such is Psalms 100. When studying Psalms 100, one gets the impression that it is inappropriate to come into God's presence any kind of way. When Esther had to approach the king, she couldn't do it any kind of way. It was dangerous and hazardous to your health to approach the king any kind of way. When it comes to our worship experience, we must pull off worldly desires and put on our godly attire. As believers, we must take the proper actions and necessary steps before coming into God's holy presence. God is willing to meet us anywhere, anyplace, and anytime, but we need to come into his presence with heart and mind, body and soul that acknowledges Him as the King of Kings.

2. The Call to Praise the Lord, v.1

The writer of this Psalm informs the believer that we should make a joyful shout unto the Lord. He does not say that we should make a silent gesture but rather a joyful shout. The Hebrew word for a loud praise is to "Shabach" the Lord. The imperative form of praise expresses a command to the believers that they should shout. You should have a praise down on the inside that is so full that you are ready to let it out. It is so down deep inside of you that your praise cannot stay silent. You must shabach the Lord! Did the Lord do something for you? Did He save your soul from a burning hell? The blood still works! My bible tells me that "Jesus paid it all and all to Him I owe." We owe God our praise and worship. Are you ready to "Shabach" the Lord this morning? Do we have anybody that is willing to just praise the Lord? Somebody ought to say, "Yes Lord". Psalms 100:1 is a strong invitation to worship the Lord God with a loud praise. Tell Him thank you one more time!

Please note that God does not need us to help Him do anything. We don't praise Him because He needs us but rather we praise God because we need Him. I am reminded of the song that they sang in the old church, "I need Thee Every Hour." Oh, I need Thee. "Every hour I need Thee, O bless me now, my Savior." This was a lyrical expression of corruptible humanity needing an incorruptible God. God does not need us to wake somebody up. He does not need us to speak to creation on His behalf. He does not need us to speak to the winds on the waters. He does not need us to tell the stars when they should shine.

However, it is His will that we should serve the Lord, and we should devote ourselves to his service. We should not only devote ourselves to the worship experience, but we should employ ourselves in it. There's something for everybody to do. In Psalms 116:12-14, we find the words: "What shall I render unto the Lord for all of His benefits." David was saying that God has been too good to me and I just can't keep it to myself. All too many times, people say that I don't have anything to do but all believers owe it to God to worship Him. This is the work that every believer should be employed in. When you are not getting treated fairly on that job, you ought to still be able to lift a praise and tell the Lord, thank you. When the children are not acting right, you should still lift a praise. When the in-laws are not acting right, you should still lift a praise because God did something for us that we could not do for ourselves. When the outlaws are not acting right, you should still lift a praise and tell the Lord thank you. Right here, the old preacher would say, "the blood ran down from Calvary's Cross. He died upon an old rugged cross but early Sunday morning!" We should not only serve him in all instances of obedience to his law, but that we should come before his presence in the ordinances which he has appointed. Since we are in a pandemic, the Lord has blessed many people with the option of worshipping the Lord via various means of internet options. I thank the Lord for the church and I thank Him for the available option of Facebook live and YouTube streaming live. Those of us should testify that the Lord has been good.

3. The Call to Serve the Lord, v. 2

We know that the imperative form of praise is to shout but there is an emotional element of praise. We should serve the Lord joyfully. Are you excited about what the Lord is doing in your life? We are directed to serve the Lord with gladness and come before His presence with singing. Have you ever come to the place of worship and when you got there, you did not feel well? But when you left the place of worship, you were feeling quite well. We used to say, serving the Lord will pay off after a while. But, I am here to tell you that serving the Lord pays off right now!

As we delve into the call to serve the Lord, we will find that there are several aspects of service. First, there is "what" type of service should everyone be doing. Everyone should praise and shabach the Lord. The function of our praise is a part of our service. Second, there is the "how" should we praise the Lord? The Psalmist informs the believer that we should "serve the Lord with gladness." The attitude of our gratitude should cause us to rejoice with singing. Did anybody get up with a song this morning? Thirdly, there is "who" are you giving the praise? The object of our praise is to the Lord. Fourth, "why" should we give God the praise? God is full of grace and mercy. Our God is a good God!

4. The Cause for Praising the Lord, v. 3-5

Now, let me ask you a question. Can I ask you a question? Did He wake you up this morning? Did He give you a portion of health and strength? I know that you could not get with all the kinfolk but thank God that you were able to get with one or two on Thanksgiving Day. Was the blood still running warm in your veins? I thank the Lord that the bed that we laid down on last night: wasn't our cooling board and the sheets that we covered up with Father was not our winding clothes.

Wait a minute, I think that someone missed their cue to praise the Lord. Somebody, tell Him thank you! Have you got your praise on today?

The Lord is God and He is the only living and true God. Our God is a Being that is infinitely perfect, self-existent, and self-sufficient. Our God is the fountain of all being. God is not a man as we are. He is an eternal Spirit, whom is incomprehensible and independent. He is the first and the last. He is the Alpha and Omega. We worship him that made us and all the whole wide world. The Lord God is the Creator of every good and perfect gift. It is he that has made us, and not we ourselves. The Lord God gave us our being and He is the Father of our spirits. We did not and could not make ourselves. It is God's prerogative to make man in His own image. As a result, God is our rightful owner. He has an incontestable right to everything that was made. This is the cause and the reason for our worship!

Yours in Christ,
