PASTOR EDDIE BROWN, Sr

"The LEADER'S EDGE" by dr. michael bell

Have you ever worked alongside an undisciplined pastor, deacon, ministry leader, or youth director? Is there anything more frustrating than watching extremely talented individuals squander precious time and opportunity because they are undisciplined, out of control, and all over the place? I've seen pastors too trifling to prepare a decent message for Sunday; I've witnessed deacons too narcissistic to faithfully serve the Church; I've encountered ministers of music, literal maestros, who were sources of tension and conflict in the congregation they were supposed to be serving in. I could go on and on, but let me just cut to the chase. The undisciplined leader is a hindrance to Church growth, a barrier to Church harmony, and a stumbling block to other believers.

By definition, a leader is a person whom others follow. How do you know you're a leader worth following? The following are some traits of unreliable leaders; I've also provided some correctives.

Neglects The "Little Things." Attention to detail is underrated. Many leaders are not detail oriented. That might not be a "deal breaker." However, if you are one of these leaders or plan to become one, then you'd better have somebody in your team that does care about attention to detail.

Attention to detail is important because it helps prevent mistakes and makes success more attainable. The problem is that being attentive to detail can be nearly impossible when you're distracted or you're one of those people who just can't focus. But, there are ways to become more detail oriented if you feel you're lacking. To get you started I suggest three ways:

- Get in touch with your faith.
- Read more.
- Create a ministry environment with fewer interruptions.

One more thing. Time management is an attention-to-detail skill. If your meeting is scheduled for Tuesday at 7 p.m., be there and start on time! If the worship service is set for Sunday at 9 a.m., don't sit around waiting until the folk show up; kick it off on time! Never forget that it's the "little foxes that spoil the vineyards."

Unreliability is another characteristic of an undisciplined leader. Being a person who others can't count on or trust will block effective relationships from being built. This will also lead to a false impression of Christianity as people see who Christ is by our actions.

Lack of Focus. To effectively lead a Church, ministry, or auxiliary, leaders must be focused. It's important to limit or, in some cases, eliminate distractions and hone in on the key tasks at hand. While leaders are often pulled in numerous directions simultaneously, they must be able to retain clear minds and focus on the things that matter. Effective Church leaders plan ahead and they work hard at being organized. They think through multiple scenarios and the possible impacts of their decisions, while considering viable alternatives and making plans and strategies.

Commitment. We've all seen the detritus left behind by uncommitted leaders, so I won't belabor this point. Suffice it to say that when you get a group of leaders committed to following Christ, anything is possible.

"Speak Life Thought" with First Lady & Co-Pastor Yolanda G. Butler

A Life of Prayer- God's Voice

"My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me."

John 10:27 NLT

I can recall one day asking a dear sister, "How do you hear the voice of God?" I mean she seemed to have had such a solid prayer life and always referenced hearing from God, I sincerely wanted to know. She gave me such a long explanation that I don't even remember to this day how she hears God's voice. So, I went to the Source and asked the Father myself. The Holy Spirit gave me three words: "Relationship, Prayer and the Word of God."

Jesus said in John 10:27, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me." This is the endearing testament to the relationship between the Good Shepherd and His sheep, a Spiritual Father and His children, and Pastor and his flock. Notice, the central figure is Jesus as evidenced by usage of the pronouns, "my," "I" and "me." This depicts a loving relationship of trust so precious that just the very voice of the Shepherd causes the sheep to respond. Relationship means the way two or more people connect and behave toward each other. For the born-again believer, relationship has been established through salvation that has brought us into fellowship with our Heavenly Father by the blood of the Lamb. Building that relationship comes through spending time with Abba, Our Heavenly Father.

Prayer is a relationship builder that is an open connection between you and Abba. Jesus said, in Luke 18:1 (NLT) "...that men always ought to pray and not lose heart." Prayer must not only become your everyday lifestyle but your everyday language. As an Intercessor you must be persistent (remaining attached without falling off) and persevere (to press despite difficulty) in prayer until there is a release in your spirit. This means that there are times in which the Holy Spirit may cause your prayer to be laborious, requiring considerable time and effort as opposed to several minutes. This is why developing your endurance in prayer is vital.

Studying and meditating on God's Word is a relationship fortifier. The Father told Joshua that if he studied, meditated, and implemented His Word on a daily basis, he would prosper and succeed in everything he does. He also encouraged Him not to be discouraged but to be brave wherever he went and whatever he went through. (See Joshua 1:8-9) What a powerful promise for each of us. As an Intercessor, it is vital to your relationship to likewise make this a daily part of your regiment. In doing this, you build confidence in God and His Word that when you pray you know that God hears you no matter the situation. 1 John 5:14-15 NLT declares, "14And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: 15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him." What is it that the Father is listening for? The Father is listening for His Word. As an Intercessor, you must pray His Word in faith.

Consistency and constancy are the bonding agents to relationship, prayer and meditating on God's Word. As you make it your daily practice to commune with your Heavenly Father, so do you learn how to hear His voice. So dear hearts, continue to strive to live a life that yearns to hear and know God's voice.

Christ Lifters Cathedral of Faith Please Help Us Get To Zero!

Praise the Lord God's People! I am so excited to share that CLCF has been diligent in retiring the debt on the building we purchased almost 5 years ago. On the upcoming 10th anniversary of our church we have gotten our remaining building debt down to $17,400. Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! However, we need your help to finish strong. In 2 months our loan balloons and the bank is expecting us to renew our loan.

God has placed a tremendous burden on me to pay off our building. We've been celebrating the fact that we were able to purchase our own building. However, in the midst of the celebration God told me that I had made a God of our $60K loan balance. He told me that $60K was not a lot of money for Him. He told me to press to pay it off as soon as possible so that we could do more ministry. I've never been a preacher who has solicited help from anyone outside of our ministry. However, God is growing me up in this very uncomfortable space and He's doing it both for my benefit and the benefit of our church. We started our Double Up Campaign / Take 2 Capital Campaign last year this time and we owed $60,000. By the grace of God and a faithful group of believers and friends in ministry we are now down to only $17,400. Ain't nobody mad, but the Devil and the bank!

I know it sounds crazy for us to be stretching to accelerate our loan payoff when letting the loan balloon and refinancing the balance at a very comfortable note is so much easier. Well that's just like God to commission you to do something that is uncomfortable, borderline crazy and next to impossible by yourself. In fact that's what Noah did when he built an Ark and had never seen rain. It's what Moses did when God told him to stretch out his staff over the Red Sea. It's what Mary did when God sent angels to tell her she was with child, but had never been with a man. At any rate I won't preach to you, but I want you to know that this is totally out of my character.

Please prayerfully consider partnering with us to do the impossible. Help us get to zero! We are the young church in the community and many of our community churches are older, thus their outreach is somewhat limited. From day one we've always been a giving church and a ministry concerned about "the least of these." The Riverside Community needs CLCF to be debt free to do more ministry. Help us get there!

- 3.) Mail to CLCF, P.O. Box 24531, Fort Worth, TX 76124

Elect Ladies of Texas Social Activity Group of Stars of Glory Chapter #50, O.E.S. held their 21st Annual Scholarship Luncheon

On Saturday April 6, 2018, Elect Ladies of Texas Social Activity Group of Stars of Glory Chapter #50, O.E.S. held their 21st Annual Scholarship Luncheon. Each year this organization tirelessly provide an environment of recognition of accomplishment to graduating high school students.

This year's recipient is a very deserving young lady, Sharrell Prince from Austin, Texas. Miss Prince has maintained a 3.5 grade point average while participating in her school's band, Full orchestra, Volleyball, basketball, Upward Bound and many more extracurricular activities. Not only has she been active in school but also in her Youth Department at Greater Mt. Zion Church, Pastor Gaylon Clark, in Austin. Sherrel's letter of recommendation came from the Founder and Director of Austin Soundwaves Patrick Slevin. Their program helps expand access to high quality music education throughout Central Texas. In his letter Mr. Slevin expressed that "Sharrel is the hardest working student I have ever worked with; she combines her tremendous intuitive abilities with an unwavering work ethic and exudes positivity and a passion for music and for life."

With high praise as this how could she not be chosen for a scholarship! Unfortunately, this past year has been a bit cumbersome to Miss Prince in the events of losing her aunt and grandmother a month apart and her friend, bomb victim, Draylen Mason. Most would be devastated but not Sharell, during her grieving she has still completed her school requirements, activities and her scholarship application to Elect Ladies of Texas. Miss Prince contributed her continued stride because of her faith in God. "My faith in God started to grow when I realized he wasn't going to give up on me. Even when he knew I didn't have faith in him, he kept sending me signs."

Sharell Prince will attend University of Texas at San Antonio in the pursuit of a degree in Pharmacy. She is determined to help improve the quality of medicines in the Pharmaceutical Industry. Well wishes and success to Sharell Prince with all her endeavors.

INSIDE THE MUSIC

Evangelist

IS YOUR MUSIC MINISTRY FOR THE INDUSTRY?

As I write this month's title, I honestly know that I really want to ask, "Did God call you to be a Gospel Music Artist?" If you know of a truth that He did, then the steps you will or have taken will not be burdensome or unfamiliar. They may take a lot of your time, your money and your mental energy, but you understand the journey will be fueled by your passion and obedience.

For over 25 years, I have consulted and witnessed a variety of talented singers and musicians at various skill levels and experience. Many of them, with their amazingly gifted selves, may never be signed to a record label, become wealthy or sell millions of CDs. Some have done very well and continue to sell out to large audiences with regular booking engagements. There are some who are now performing around the world with television appearances. Some are still very much local singers and occasionally pay to 'showcase' at large national conferences for exposure. What is the difference between these talented people? Did one become 'an artist' because they began dreaming at an early age to become one? Was the other not surrounded by supporters who could guide them towards an industry mindset? Was it exposure, access to information, location or simply talent limitations? It seems unrealistic to expect that talent levels had to be consistent. Shirley Caesar sings one way while Tasha C. Leonard sings another and both are very successful. The same can be said for Marvin Sapp and VaShawn Mitchell. Different, but effective. Poignant executions. Could it be in the preparation and follow through that helps some make it or not?

Moving your music ministry into the industry requires a business plan. The plan is all about the excellence in owning, branding, marketing and showing who you are as a music minister. At the least, one must license their ministry, copyright all their original music and join a performing rights organization (BMI, ASCAP, SESAC, etc.) Forming a team of supporters to help move your ministry to the forefront is critical. This team should include a manager, publicist, social media rep and the band/producer. Everyone should absolutely, unequivocally and definitely believe in you and your gift. Their efforts will be earnest and impressive. No business plan can go forth without a solid and well prepared budget. You will need finances to pay for ongoing vocal lessons, quality recording and production sessions, CD packaging, replication and distribution, listening party, promotions and publicity - to name a few. Hopefully you will have the freedom from a job to seek and meet engagement opportunities near and far. Of course, engagements may be the way you start this journey, if the budget isn't available for a quality CD and song material. There is no one clear path to industry success. But I do believe the clearest point that must exist is that God called you to "Go into all the world and preach/sing the gospel to every creature". If that is the case, then go, stay the course and be excellent!

May Peace be your Journey

The Gospel Corner with Proclaimer of the Word...

Rev. J.R. Brumfield

The Church's Enemy

1 Peter 5:8

1. Introduction

In the first few verses of this book, the Apostle Peter encourages elders to feed the flock. Also, Peter encourages the elders to be examples to the flock and practice holiness. The elders or spiritual guides are to teach, preach, protect the flock, exhort and admonish the saints in sound doctrine. The elders cannot seek to fleece the flock but should strive to conduct themselves in holy conversation and conduct. As elders or pastors of the local churches, one must stay prayed up and ready for battle. It is the responsibility of every elder to execute holiness in their daily lives. One must not get caught up with the devil's tactics and allow the devil to win thus rendering the ministry ineffective.

The flock of the local church should respect the elders and be ready to receive counsel. It is the duty of the elders to make sure that they are rightly dividing the Word of truth. It is the responsibility of every church member to bear one another's burdens and pray for their pastor. The duty of submission to the elder or spiritual guide is contrary to human nature. Most of us want to have things our way but the church is not about selfish motives or ambitions. If we become haughty then the Lord can punish us. God resists the proud, but He gives grace to the humble. Church leaders and church members should avoid the sin of pride and allow the spirit of humility to work on their behalf.

The proud are at war against God. There is a constant struggle that each Christian warrior must engage. Every true Christian faces the same three enemies. These mighty foes are in league against us. Our foes are crafty, cunning, lurking about, and ready to attack at every opportunity. They seek to confuse and overwhelm us and wear us down. The enemy's goal is to murder us and to take away the opportunity for eternal life.

There are three enemies that seek to take away the opportunity for eternal life. These enemies are as follows: 1) sin-nature, 2) society's influence, and 3) Satan's strategies. We will have to battle them for the rest of our physical lives. Every ounce of energy and effort must be put forth to gain victory over them. We have no time to be judgmental of our brothers and sisters, but we have a full-time job of keeping watch over our conduct and communication. The apostle encourages us to be humble and not become burdened down with a load of cares. The best remedy against too much care is to cast our cares upon the Lord. Let's examine each of our enemies.

2. Sin Nature (Self)

The first enemy in the Christian's daily warfare is the sin nature which deals with self. In II Corinthians 10:3-4, we find that as long as we are in the flesh, we will have to battle our sin nature. Although as Christians we have help from the Holy Spirit, there is another aspect of man and that is self. Self is a stronghold against God. It does not want to be conquered and it does not want to submit to the will of God. Human flesh is at enmity against God. It allows one to have a haughty spirit and not want to cooperate with God's program. Therefore, there are divisions and quarreling in the church. The sin nature will attempt to destroy you (Rom. 8:5-7)!

The self wants to do its own things and think its own thoughts. It will cleverly rationalize all it wants to do. It is "deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9). The selfish nature seeks only to bring forth the works of the flesh: vanity, jealousy, lust and greed (Gal. 5:19-21). It wants us to violate God's spiritual Law and entice us to sin. Sin separates man from God. When Jesus was dying on the cross, His Father had to turn his back for a moment in time because Jesus was carrying all our sins on the cross. Aren't you glad that Jesus paid the ultimate price for our sins? Unless we successfully wage and win the war against the self, we will suffer the consequences of an uncommitted lifestyle.

3. Society's Influence

The devil will use his influence in society to cause you to stumble. The devil knows how to tempt the Christian and he is busy. He is the accuser of the brethren (men & women, boys and girls). Although you may have accepted Jesus as your personal Savior, the devil will remind you of your past failures. Sometimes the devil will tell you that there is nothing wrong with a little sin but one rotten apple can cause considerable damage in one's life. Sometimes one mistake can ruin your reputation and render you ineffective in the world. Satan wants to ruin our testimonies so that we cannot witness to a dying world. Don't let Satan still your testimonies. We need to be properly armed against Satan. Society will tell one that one needs to do what they want to do. However, those of us that are washed by the blood of Jesus know that we are not our own. We are bought with a price. Jesus paid it all.

The apostle wants us to guard against pride and the pride of life. We must set our affections on things above. We must serve the Lord while it is day for when night comes no man can work. It is our duty to be on guard against our enemy. As we serve the Lord, we recognize that He is our Master. We execute our duties in the spirit of meekness and holiness. If the world is going to see a light, then we must let our light shine.

The devil is an accuser that wants to strike you out. The devil wants to strike you out or stab you with his fiery darts. We need the protection that only comes from the Word of God. We need to guard our hearts against pride.

4. Satan's Strategy

The devil is hungry, fierce, strong, cruel, and he is greedy. He is hungry because he goes around looking for ways to weaken our faith in God. He allows various temptations to come our way so that we may say to ourselves that God cannot handle the situation. When we start to magnify our problems over our God, then we allow Satan an opportunity to win.

Satan is fierce and relentless. He keeps coming after one's faith in God. He wants to shake your faith foundation. Jesus told Peter that Satan has desired to shift him like wheat, but I have prayed for you. Have you prayed for anyone lately? Is your church a praying church?

Satan is strong and we are no match for the devil unless we put on the whole armor of God. Our God is an awesome God and He has all-power!!! He has power to save and power to keep. God is awesome!

Satan is cruel and he doesn't care anything about the preacher, the deacon, the missionary sister, the young children, or the little babies. We need to look at what is happening in America with the immigrants being separated from their families. This nation is a nation built upon immigrants. Yet, immigrants are being asked to leave this great county.

Satan is greedy and he wants your whole household. He wants your attention. Are you going to give it to him? He walks around town seeking whom he may devour. We must be vigilant and not careless in the things of the Lord. He devours and destroys. The devil has a destructive nature. Have you been around people that are destructive? As children of God, we must pray for one another. We must pray for each other's journey through life. Please note that whatever the Lord has assigned to your hands, do it in the spirit of humility. Don't allow the devil to cause you to stumble along the way due to a haughty spirit. In Matthew 5:5, we are reminded that the meek are indeed blessed. As we go about our assignments, let's remember to lean on the Lord and not our own understanding.

In closing, we must be sober-minded. Don't let a haughty spirit cause you to miss a move of God. Govern your inward and outward man by rules of temperance, modesty, and mortify your members.

Yours in Christ,

CommuniVersity-Texas Collaboration Joint Mediation Training

CommuniVersity-Texas Collaboration Joint Mediation Training will begin at New Mount Rose Missionary Baptist Church 2864 starting, Tuesdays, June 26, 2018 until September 4, 2018 from 6pm to 10pm with Dr. Gary E. Lacey, Assistant Professor and Director of the Institute of Mediation, Arbitration, Strategic Studies & Forensics in the School of Criminology, Criminal Justice, and Strategic Studies at Tarleton State University in Fort Worth (a Member of the Texas A&M University System).

Conflict between the police and people from marginalized communities is a constant in many of our affected neighborhoods. The tension is continuously causing adverse community experiences and straining what little trust exists among the families in the community and the police who are responsible for ensuring that the neighborhoods are safe. Community leaders, law enforcement leadership, as well as, the 'City Fathers' are praying that the leadership on all sides of the breach are looking for sustainable, positive strategies to help change these conditions.

CommuniVersity-Texas is a solution-driven construct that combines the skill sets of the church, community, city, and academia to help resolve conflict, build relationships, reduce crime, and improve the quality of life of individuals that live in these communities and the people who provide the security in these impacted neighborhoods.

Joint Mediation Training Class Schedule:

Tuesday, June 26, 2018, 6-10pm	Tuesday, August 7, 2018, 6-10pm
Tuesday, July 10, 2018, 6-10pm	Tuesday, August 14, 2018, 6-10pm
Tuesday, July 17, 2018, 6-10pm	Tuesday, August 21, 2018, 6-10pm
Tuesday, July 24, 2018, 6-10pm	Tuesday, August 28, 2018, 6-10pm
Tuesday, July 31, 2018, 6-10pm	Tuesday, September 4, 2018, 6-10pm

All classes will be held in the Milford L. Kelly Fellowship Hall. Registration is required per student for training. For information on becoming a part of the CommuniVersity-Texas Collaboration contact 817.966.7625, kptatum1@gmail.com

EXCEL BEYOND JAIL: THE FAIR HOUSING FIX FOR FELONS.

United States HUD Secretary Dr. Ben Carson was in Fort Worth, Texas on June 19, 2018 to Announce the Envision Center coming to our city. Here is the link to his press conference. Link: <https://youtu.be/KsTntF8fyRA>

Turn to the 20:52 portion of Dr. Ben Carson's press conference and you will hear our Excel Beyond Jail Fair Housing Fix for Felons question and and Dr. Carson's response concerning the fair housing frustration for citizens who were previously incarcerated. Dr. Carson response was enlightening and encouraging. As my childhood friend Tommy Joe Carter recently wrote, "everybody deserves a place to stay." We agree Tommy Joe. We agree.

According to Charles Stanley, "Jesus commanded that we serve one another, but obeying this mandate in humility is not natural for us. Sure, there are times we like to help others. But service that involves self-sacrifice--especially for someone we deem undeserving--much more difficult to do.

What does it mean to serve? Consider Christ's example. He gave up everything in heaven to live among us, subjecting Himself to dishonor and human frailty. And He loved even those who rejected Him. Think about how He humbled Himself and washed the disciples' feet at Passover. This was a disgusting, lowly task that a slave might be assigned--far from anything a king should do. He even knew these men were about to abandon Him but served them anyway.

Ultimately, Christ gave His life for us. And He did so while we were still sinners (Rom. 5:8). Serving others was His lifestyle--part of who He was and what He did. As His followers, we should strive to be like Him.

Therefore, service involves first dying to our selfish attitudes and motives. Only then can we live to glorify Christ. Jesus said that the greatest commandments are to love God wholeheartedly and to love others (Matt. 22:37-39). Ironically, it is only when we humbly serve others that we experience God's fullness in our own lives.

Many try to achieve happiness by striving after their own desires. The result? Tired, unsatisfied people. True contentment happens only when we walk closely with Jesus. He shows where we can humble ourselves and take care of others. These actions, done through His strength, will be blessed."

MONEY MATTERS!!

Money is available for bad credit loans

No matter your reason for needing extra cash, or your credit history, you can have the money you need in no time, thanks to "BAD CREDIT LOANS". Getting personal loans with bad credit is no longer a concern, because there are thousands of lenders that are willing to loan small amounts of money to consumers with bad credit. Most of these lenders are unknown because they only operate on-line. These lenders do not advertise in local areas. Instead, they use a network of affiliates to locate borrowers for them. By doing so these lenders are able to reduce advertising costs and get qualified borrowers that are highly likely to repay the loan.

Millions of American consumers are ripped-off by payday and title lenders that charge excessive interest and fees that trap consumers with unreasonable payment terms. At all costs consumers should avoid these types of loans.

RAY WILLIAMS

Benefits of Personal Loans

Personal loans are a quick, simple way to get the money you need without having to wait days or weeks for approval. Since personal loans are a type of unsecured loan, there's no need to put any asset up for collateral and you don't have to go through a traditional credit check either! You can get your money in hours rather than days. On top of that, personal loans are a great way to build your credit since they're a very accessible bad credit loan.

Unlike traditional lenders and banks, or payday lenders and title lenders, bad credit lenders work hard to help you meet your financial needs. These lenders treat you with the dignity and respect like a friendly and professional organization should. These types of loan are a great way for reestablishing credit and saving on interest and fees. Generally, these lenders only require a bank account with direct deposit and $1,500 monthly income.

Greenway Capital Management specialize in helping consumers with bad credit get personal loans, credit cards and real estate investment loans regardless of credit. For additional call Ray at 888- 317-6497.
