"The LEADER'S EDGE" by drmichaelbell

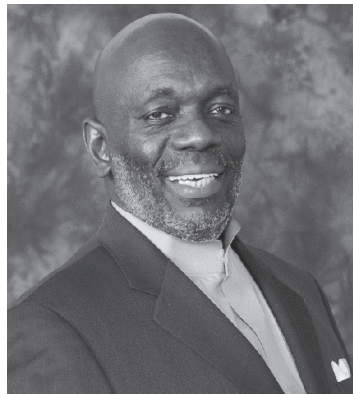

Jesus said, in John 8:32, "You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." So, here's goes.

Long before we were bum-rushed by the SARS-CoV-2 virus, it was already a chore to get those people who'd walked up the aisle and declared that they were on the Lord's side to attend church worship services. Sports, weekends away, the seeming inability of the Church to stave off the influence of an increasingly Darwinian culture and a growing apathy and increased mobility meant that for most churches, attendance was flat or declining, and even for growing churches, growing attendance was hard work.

Now, in whatever this space we're currently in, because it's certainly isn't post-Covid, as churches around the country reopen, it's now apparent that church attendance has taken a nosedive. In fact, a recent Lifeway Research study, which analyzed church data from 34 Protestant denominations and groups, estimated that in the decade ending in 2020, 3,850 to 7,700 houses of worship closed per year in the United States, or 75 to 150 congregations per week. Pastor of Connexus Church Carey Nieuwhof comments that "the average church has seen their re-opened attendance come in around 36% of previous levels." Nieuwhof continues, "Almost no leader I've interviewed expects church attendance to jump back to pre-COVID levels for a while." In the words of the late R&B crooner Marvin Gaye, "What's going on?"

A clinician will tell you that a diagnostic error may result in the patient being denied timely, effective therapy or being administered potentially toxic, incorrect medications. Where a prompt treatment could have returned a patient to full health, the consequences of a wrong diagnosis can be devastating. Getting the right diagnosis is key for the patient.

The first step in effectively addressing the attendance crisis you're experiencing is to diagnose it accurately. The current church attendance crisis isn't medical, it's cultural. If we blame the decline in church attendance only on the hegemony of the SARS-CoV-2 virus, we fail to consider the cultural context that was already in place before the pandemic. Prior to the lockdowns, mask mandates and shelter-in-place edicts, church attendance was already seen as something optional, something good if it helps you along in your personal spiritual life, but not something essential to your faith. Plus, today, if at all, parents don't spend a significant amount of time talking to their children about the importance of being a member of a faith community. Consequently, according to Gallup, Currently, 31% of millennials have no religious affiliation, which is up from 22% a decade ago. Similarly, 33% of the portion of Generation Z that has reached adulthood have no religious preference.

So, the church as we knew it before the pandemic will not likely reappear. The SARS-CoV-2 virus only accelerated the church's free fall. No, we don't know where the church will land. But, one thing we know for sure is that it will be different. It needs to be different. In fact, if we are to be the church to reach new people, we must show up in different and new ways. We must shed the methods that no longer serve the church and be open to being the church in new and fresh Christ-honoring ways. Rest assured that the path to the good news is blazed by leaders who keep moving through all the bad news.

Speak Life Thought

with First Lady & Co-Pastor Yolanda G. Butler

"An Odd Life"

"But ye are a ... peculiar people." (1 Peter 2:9)

Have you ever questioned yourself or even the Father about being odd? Your heart has always been to love and serve God but every now and then you just want to hang out, relax and have some fun. But somehow the invitation to the evening dinner, that rocking birthday party, or weekend pool party seemed to never have made it to your inbox. You begin to wonder, "Is there something wrong me with?" "Am I off putting?" "Is everything about me so spiritual that no one wants to hang with me?"

I submit to you that you are exactly who you are supposed to be—odd! The word, "odd," means unusual, strange, detached from a pair, or set; a person or thing differing in some way from the other members of a group or set. When Adam sinned, the nature of man was changed from righteous to unrighteous. Everything about mankind became detached. Mankind was supposed to reflect the Father in innocence, holiness, and righteousness but the enemy came in and separated him from the Father and expanded sin in all the earth. Jesus Christ took on the form of man, walked the earth, and became odd in the eyes of those who were blind. Yet, He reflected the Father and did nothing outside of the Father's Will. He is seated right next to the Father as the Advocate and Mediator of those who would accept Him and be willing to become odd, strange, detached from the world, and reattached to the Father.

Every time you confess with your mouth the Almighty Father, you reflect something strange in the eyes of the angels who question why He is so mindful of you. (Ps. 8:5) Every time you surrender to the Father's Will, you detach yourself from the enemy's grips over your life. Psalm 139:14 says, "I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: Marvellous are thy works; And that my soul knoweth right well." This Scripture is an affirmation of confidence of being odd. In the womb unbeknownst to my mother the enemy tried to kill and disfigure me but the Father had the final say so when he fearfully (in honor) and wonderfully (set apart) made me. Each of us were chosen before the foundation of the world to be created and be set apart as odd yet with honor and respect.

When you choose to live in holiness you astonish the world. When you say "no" to the enemy and all he has to offer--the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life--and choose to walk in the joy of your salvation, well then that makes you odd to satan and all his kingdom of darkness because he doesn't like anything that identifies with the Father. He accuses us daily (Rev. 12:1) but a standard has been raised up against him through our Savior. (Is 54:17) It may be odd in the eyes of man, but it is right in the eyes of the Father. You may feel "odd" because you are "odd" by the Blood of the Lamb. Never be ashamed to be the one that is distinguished from the crowd, the co-workers, the family, amongst friends, and yes even in the Church for not all who say, "Lord, Lord," are His. Each member of the Body of Christ has a function, some are seen, and some are not seen, some work a little harder, and some do not, but together we make up one incredible representation of the Father. (1 Cor. 12)

Be not ashamed to be odd because you are surrendering to what the Father defined you to be. Everything about you is odd with a purpose. You were created from the dust of the earth – that's odd. You were redeemed by the Sacrificial Lamb of Christ – that's odd. You are the salt of the earth and the light of the world – that's odd. Every time you choose to die daily to the flesh and walk in the spirit – that's odd. Thru tears and pain, you choose to trust the Father and yet praise – that's odd. You love a God whom you have not seen but by faith believe – that's odd. The world calls you odd and that's just the way it is supposed to be. So dear hearts, be determined to live an odd life on purpose.

GREAT AS A GIFT OR FOR PERSONAL

St. Matthew Missionary Baptist Church Pastoral Installation Service

The Reverend Doctor Lester E. Singleton, was formally installed as the third pastor of St. Matthew Missionary Baptist Church (SMMBC) during a special service Sunday, September 5, 2021 in the church's sanctuary at 5500 East Berry Street. Pastor Singleton succeeds the Rev. Troy William Pope who was the church's pastoral leader for 51 years before transitioning from life mortal to life immortal on February 23, 2020. The Pastoral Installation Service was postponed due to COVID-19 constraints. It was an anointed service of pageantry, prayer, praise, preaching, and presentations. The congregation consisted of church members, family members, friends, clergy, church community and civic individuals.

The installation service began with the entrance of clergy, worship participants and Pastor Lester and Lady Maria Singleton. The worship experience was fortified with testimony of scripture, fervent prayer, spirit-filled songs of praise, the illuminating Preach-Word, cordial expressions and presentations of love and respect. Dr. Robbie Moore, Pastor of Pearly Gate Baptist Church, Dallas, TX preached the Installation Sermon, conducted the Charge to the Pastor and Prayer of Installation. Rev. James Clay, Pastor of New Galilee Baptist Church, Mansfield, TX conducted the Response to the Word. Rev. Ronnie Moore, Associate Pastor of Community Missionary Baptist Church, DeSoto, TX conducted the Common Hope Confession and Charge to the Church.

Greetings were brought by Mayor Pro Tem, District 5 Councilwoman, Gyna M. Bivens. Retired Pastor, Dr. Floyd S. Moody brought greetings in behalf of the Stop Six Community Churches. During the Installation Ceremony the members of SMMBC surrounded Pastor & Sister Singleton with heads bowed in reverence and respect as the Charges were given and the Installation

Prayer was rendered.

Rev. Dr. Lester E. Singleton brings to the SMMBC over two-and-a half decades of church ministry and administration accompanied with a lifetime of loyal and faithful lay service. He is a graduate of : Andersonville Theological Seminary, Camilla, Georgia, Doctorate of Ministry in Pastoral Leadership; Texas A&M University Commerce, Commerce, TX Master of Science and Master of Education; Dallas Baptist University, Dallas, TX Bachelor of Applied Arts & Science. In addition to his passion for kingdom work he is an author, presenter, advocate and administrator. After months of prayerfully seeking God for the pastor He had divinely willed, prepared and purposed for a task such as this at a time such as this, Pastor Singleton heard the clarion call from God to accept the call to SMMBC. He preached his first pastoral sermon on March 8, 2020. Thank God for His indescribable blessings!

The Opal Lee Legacy Celebration

It's been a long time coming, but as promised by the songster, change has come! Having been on this journey through the years with her, we are thrilled to celebrate our beloved Deaconess Opal Lee, her dedication to Christian service, and the realization of her dream to have Juneteenth declared a national holiday.

Many here at Baker Chapel AMEC can't remember a Sunday when we didn't hear a "pep talk", or community announcement from Deaconess Lee about the urgency of an upcoming civic event or our civic duty. So it's fitting that we should celebrate her accomplishments and especially join in celebrating her 95th birthday.

It wouldn't be a celebration without you, so we are hoping you will join us Sunday, October 10th, 3pm to 5pm for The Opal Lee Legacy Celebration which will feature a "Rolling Celebration". We will gather beginning at 2pm at the Parking lot of the Hazel Harvey Peace Center for Neighborhoods at 818 Missouri Avenue, Fort Worth, TX 76104. The celebration will roll out and proceed to Baker Chapel AME Church at 3:00PM.

You are invited to join The Opal Lee Legacy Celebration on a float, in a vehicle or walking in your "tennis shoes", whatever your choice, we look forward to you joining us.

For further details, please contact: Rev. Cheryl Cammon at revcheryl128@gmail.com | (682) 402-7941 or Jimmy Killingsworth, Coordinator at jkillingsworth82@att.net | (817) 907-8493.

#Coffee4ACause Proverbs 19:17 | Pastor Tatum Creates Coffee Initiative to Stimulate the Inner-city Economy

FORT WORTH, TEXAS | Can coffee stimulate healthy conversation without confrontation and the economy in the inner-city? Pastor Kyeve Tatum is on a mission to find out.

CityEquity, USA, a grassroots organization is teaming up with Texas AGM University Center for Coffee Research and Education and What's The Buzz Coffee to help stimulate the inner-city economy and to promote self-sufficiency during this coronavirus pandemic recovery.

#Coffee4ACause is a new initiative that will work with international coffee farmers and rural specialty coffee distributors and researchers to produce a finer coffee from the bean to the blend to the brew.

"We are extremely excited to be able to move our inner-city neighbors from a position of charity to a place of dignity by teaching the the principles of wealth building by learning, earning, saving, protecting, and respecting their dollars, says Pastor Kyeve P. Tatum, New Mount Rose Missionary Baptist Church and Ministers of Justice Coalition of Texas.

The organizers of #Coffee4ACause have teamed up with the Texas Rangers Baseball Team and the Black on Base Negro Leagues to project the positivity to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion within our country. In honor of this effort, Pastor Tatum has created "Ballpark Coffee" to market this initiative for our the inner-city.

"While we are appreciative of all the charitable support during this pandemic, we are now positioned to help stimulate the economy in a way that would help them to become self-sufficiency.

Each donation of $15 or more will receive a complimentary bag of our finest Ballpark Coffee.

For more information on this and other opportunities, please contact Pastor Tatum at 817.966.7625. kptatum1@gmail.com | www.CityEquity.org

Donations can be mailed to: Kyeve Tatum, CityEquity, USA PO Box 693 Fort Worth, Texas 76101-0693

Cowan Place-Stop Six starts new neighborhood construction

Stop Six residents, Fort Worth city leaders, developers and supporters celebrated the start of construction Thursday of Cowan Place Senior Living, a 174-unit, mixed-income community that launches six phases of new residential housing planned as part of the Stop Six Choice Neighborhood Initiative.

The groundbreaking event signals the beginning of a comprehensive transformation of one of the city's treasured, African-American communities. Cowan Place is named for Alonzo and Sarah Cowan, two of the first land owners in the southeast Fort Worth community and for whom the neighborhood was once named.

The multi-year Choice Neighborhood effort is seeded by a $35 million U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development grant and includes 1,042 new residential units, neighborhood improvements and a multipurpose community hub with aquatics center that voters will consider as part of the 2022 municipal bond program.

Fort Worth Mayor Mattie Parker said the Cowan Place development is evidence of the city's commitment to strengthening its neighborhoods and ensuring that all residents have the opportunity to live in communities where families thrive.

Mayor Pro Tem Gyna M. Bivens, who grew up in Stop Six, has represented the area on the Fort Worth City Council since 2013 and has long advocated for investment in the area, which lies 15 minutes east of downtown Fort Worth and the southside Medical District, and northwest of Lake Arlington.

Leasing begins in 2023

Cowan Place will take about 24 months to build with leasing expected to begin in 2023.

A 2020 market study showed strong demand for affordable senior rental in the area regardless of future population growth. Cowan Place represents a $43 million investment in Stop Six and is supported in part by low-income housing tax credits that guarantee affordable rents for at least 30 years.

Cowan Place will feature one- and two-bedroom apartments designed with residents 62 and older in mind. The four-story development south of East Rosedale Street and facing Stalcup Road will feature stucco, brick and metal facades in a contemporary design notable for its lighted "lantern" that signals a bright, modern future for one of Fort Worth's historic communities.

Apartment residences will wrap around a central courtyard terraced to fit the site's natural terrain. Ground-level community spaces will include rooms for a library and theater, fitness studio, salon, billiards, crafts and space for private meetings with healthcare professionals.

It's Never Over When You Are In Jesus Christ

by Iareina Morgan

2 Chronicles chapter 20 15-17

He said: "Listen, King Jehoshaphat and all who live in Judah and Jerusalem!

This is what the Lord says to you: 'Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God's. Tomorrow march down against them. They will be climbing up by the Pass of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the gorge in the Desert of Jeruel. You will not have to fight this battle. Take up your positions; stand firm and see the deliverance the Lord will give you, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Go out to face them tomorrow, and the Lord will be with you.'

When does the Lord fight your battles on your behalf? Every single day, but sometimes we feel like we are in the battle by ourselves. We feel let down and depressed, and then we think the Lord doesn't see our struggles; we feel defeated. But that is the place the Lord needs us to be so that we would stop focusing on our problems and begin to focus upon Him as the perfect solution that we have been waiting for.

Many times it is not easy to wait for God's answer, but waiting is part of the solution. We don't know the right time for the answer to our prayers to manifest itself in our lives, but God does. If the answer to your prayer is yes, He will wait until the right time to make it happen, and it will be a complete victory for you and God will get all of the glory!

God told me to write this at this time because He wants you to know that He is aware of what is happening in America right now, and that it is time for all of our prayers to be answered. You will be surprised how He will answer our needs in this country, because Justice will be done, and justice is not always nice and neat or pretty, but it is fulfilling.

We have to believe that He knows what is best for us, and that ungodly political agendas will not be able to take over the world without His authority - keeping our focus upon Him is what will keep us calm and peaceful within our hearts as the rest of the world loses sight of what is really important. We are the children of the most High God, so we need to show what is special about the Kingdom of God by living according to His word, and then allow Him to work through us with our prayers and our faith.

This is the time that we need to show the whole world why we believe in Him and how much we trust Him with our lives and with our circumstances.

Keep on praying to Him - Keep on praising Him - Keep up your worship and devotion time with Him, and Keep on showing the Love of God that resides in our hearts to those who are lost in the darkness, who are unable to see the light of God except that they see it in our eyes and in our lives.

KEEP HOPE ALIVE MY SISTERS AND BROTHERS IN CHRIST, BECAUSE WE ARE ABOUT TO SEE THE LIVING GOD SHOW UP AND SHOW OUT IN THE LIVES OF EVERYONE ON THIS EARTH!
